Cross Community Family Resource Center Dedicated

The Abo Group-designed facility opens to rave reviews

The Cross Community Coalition held a dedication for its new Family Resource Center yesterday. Mayor John Hinkenlooper joined more than 150 guests in cutting a blue ribbon in front of the facility.

The Abo Group, Inc. designed the 9,500 square foot facility. The design drew praise from the Cross Coalition Executive Director Lorraine Granado who publicly thanked the firm for its work on the project during the dedication.

“We are proud to have played a part in the creation of the Family Resource Center,” Ron Abo, president of The Abo Group, Inc., said. “One of the goals of our practice is to provide services to organizations and individuals in the inner-city by creating architecture that strengthens a community.”

The new center, located at 2501 East 48th Avenue in Northeast Denver, will provide neighborhood residents with a variety of programs and services including ESL and GED classes, computer education, job placement and youth programs.

The Abo Group, Inc. is a full-service architectural design and planning firm in Denver with an emphasis on sustainable design and green architecture.
